

Jennifer Roos PT, DPT is an Associate Professor and Director of Clinical Education in the Department of Physical Therapy at California State University, Fresno. She shares her passion for Aquatics with DPT students providing this content through lecture and lab opportunities. Jennifer has been a licensed physical therapist for 22 years and has performed the majority of her clinical work at San Joaquin Valley Rehabilitation Hospital. In 2013 she received a transitional Doctor in Physical Therapy degree from a joint Doctorate program between UC, San Francisco and California State University, Fresno. She has obtained the Certification in Aquatic Physical Therapy Clinical Competency (CAPTCC) and is a Board Certified Clinical Specialist in Geriatrics (GCS). Currently she serves the CA Physical Therapy Association through her role as Chair of the San Joaquin Valley District and has represented the District for the past 8 years. Past District roles include consecutive terms as a Representative and Chief Representative which included attendance to the State Annual Assembly and the House of Delegates in 2019. Jennifer has served the Aquatics Academy as a member of the Education Committee for 4 years before transitioning into the role of 1st Vice President of Governance 2 years ago. She has been nominated to serve a second term as 1st VP of Governance and hopes to continue serving in this role representing the Aquatics Academy and continuing to support the mission and goals of the association.
